

14.B.5

No one shall be held in slavery or servitude. Strongly Disagree Disagree Agree Strongly Agree

No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment. Strongly Disagree Disagree Agree Strongly Agree

Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly, and association. Strongly Disagree Disagree Agree Strongly Agree

Everyone has the right to work, to free choice of employment, to just and favorable conditions of work. Strongly Disagree Disagree Agree Strongly Agree

Everyone has the right to rest and leisure, including reasonable limitation of working hours and periodic holidays with pay. Strongly Disagree Disagree Agree Strongly Agree

Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care. Strongly Disagree Disagree Agree Strongly Agree

Everyone has the right to education. Strongly Disagree Disagree Agree Strongly Agree

Follow survey up with a discussion on sweatshop conditions. Start discussion with brief background of statements/Universal Dec. of Human Rights. Separate room into 4 sections, one for each response and have students move around the room for each topic as you go through the discussion.