

Day 9

Review Game for Economic Unit Test

Have all students stand up. Use an inflatable ball or a small soft one and pass it to any student to ask them one of the questions below. If they answer correctly they can pass it to anyone to answer another question and sit down. If they answer incorrectly, they have to pass it to another student but keep standing until they get an answer correct. Continue until all students are sitting.

1. What country did Wal-Mart and J.C Penny send their workers to?
2. What does IBG stand for?
3. Name a country currently facing a food crisis?
4. What is the cause of that food crisis?
5. What one thing consumed most of the citizen's income?
6. What is a second major item consuming their income?
7. Name an item or thing that Bangladesh imports?
8. Name a second major import?
9. How does Halima explain how tired she is at work?
10. What happens to the workers when buyers come?
11. How does Halima take care of her dental hygiene?
12. How many factories are in China?
13. What are the ages of girls that work in the Chinese sweatshops?
14. Continue with students listing other brands that use sweatshop labor.