Questions:

1. What do you think this is trying to symbolize to the public?
2. Would you still want to buy Disney products knowing where they come from? Why or Why Not?
3. Compare the image of Disney (Magical Kingdom, fairytales, mickey mouse, Snowwhite, and so on) to the reality of where the products come from. Why do you think Disney doesn't want you to know this information? Would people not believe in the magic of Disney anymore if this were public knowledge? Explain.
