Discussion:

In the end of the first unit, awareness, have a discussion with the class as a recap and reflection. Questions to get the class started are followed:

-Compare your life to the ones you have learned about this week (from movies, articles, etc.)

-How did this unit reflect your outlook on the world?

-Has this unit created any awareness to the products you purchase? (Such as you stay away from brands or items, look at where it is made, etc.)

-Explain how the minimum wage is extremely lower compared to that of the United States.

-Predict how society would be today if sweatshops were completely abolished.
